Read the passage below and choose A, B, C or D to answer each question from 636 to 640.

No matter who we are or where we are from, we only have 24 hours each day to get things done. Some people seem to make the most of their time, using it to achieve their goals and dreams. Others feel that life is passing them by and they aren't accomplishing anything. If you are in the latter group, it is not too late to turn things around. By implementing a few simple hacks, you can start getting better results very quickly.

If you want to become more productive, it pays to learn about the Pareto principle (which is also known as the 80-20 rule). It states that for most tasks, 80 percent of the results we get come from 20 percent of the work we do. For example. 80 percent of the company sales usually come from 20 percent of customers. Therefore, the trick is to focus your efforts on the key 20 percent of actions that truly matter to greatly improve your results.

In some cases, people may be busy from morning to night but still seem to get nothing done. In this situation, the problem might be that clear goals haven't been set. To fix this, set some time aside to list the things you want to achieve in life. Then, select the top three or four that you want to focus on for the next year. Look at your goals every night before bedtime and ask yourself what are the next actions to accomplish each day. Then, promise yourself that you will finish these tasks no matter how busy you get. If possible try completing the tasks first thing in the morning so you are assured of success.

Another common mistake regarding productivity is not considering our energy levels. If we try to work around the clock, we will eventually get tired and quit. Everyone needs time to sleep, eat, socialize with friends, and unwind from the stress of the day. To make sure you don't burn out, be sure to schedule some time for breaks and fun activities into your schedule every day. Finally, no matter how difficult your goals may seem, remember the old saying that "a journey of a thousand miles begins with a single step".

Câu 636:

What is the right application of the Pareto principle according to the passage?

A. If you work hard 80 percent of the time, you can relax for 20 percent.

B. You need to do lots of work to increase sales by 20 percent.

C. You prioritize the important tasks which produce most of the results.

D. Companies don't need to hire more than 80 people.

Câu 637:

What does the word "this" in paragraph 3 refer to?

A. a lack of time

B. setting no aims

C. clear goals

D. failing in business

Câu 638:

What is implied in the last sentence of the passage?

A. It is best to take a big first step.

B. Start moving toward your dreams little by little.

C. Think twice before taking any steps.

D. People get their best ideas when traveling.

Read the passage below and choose A, B, C or D to answer each question from 641 to 645.

A number of factors related to the voice reveal the personality of the speaker.

The first is the broad area of communication, which includes imparting information by use of language, communicating with a group or an individual and specialized communication through performance. A person conveys thoughts and ideas through choice of words, by a tone of voice that is pleasant or unpleasant, gentle or harsh, by the rhythm that is inherent within the language itself, and by speech rhythms that are flowing and regular or uneven and hesitant, and finally, by the pitch and melody of the utterance. When speaking before a group, a person's tone may indicate uncertainty or fright, confidence or calm. At interpersonal levels, the tone may reflect ideas and feelings over and above the words chosen, or may believe them. Here, the participant's tone can consciously or unconsciously reflect intuitive sympathy or antipathy, lack of concern or interest, fatigue, anxiety, enthusiasm or excitement, all of which are usually discernible by the acute listener. Public performance is a manner of communication that is highly specialized with its own techniques for obtaining effects by voice and /or gesture. The motivation derived from the text, and in the case of singing, the music, in combination with the performer's skills, personality, and ability to create empathy will determine the success of artistic, political, or pedagogic communication.

TAILIEUONTHI.ORG

Second, the voice gives psychological clues to a person's self-image, perception of others, and emotional health. Self-image can be indicated by a tone of voice that is confident, pretentious, shy, aggressive, outgoing, or exuberant, to name only a few personality traits. Also the sound may give a clue to the facade or mask of that person, for example, a shy person hiding behind an overconfident front. How a speaker perceives the listener's receptiveness, interest, or sympathy in any given conversation can drastically alter the tone of presentation, by encouraging or discouraging the speaker. Emotional health is evidenced in the voice by free and melodic sounds of the happy, by constricted and harsh sound of the angry, and by dull and lethargic qualities of the depressedD.

Câu 641:

What does the word "Here" in paragraph 1 refer to?

A. at interpersonal interaction
B. the tone
C. ideas and feelings
D. words chosen

Câu 642:

What does the author mean by staring that, "At interpersonal levels, tone may reflect ideas and feelings over and above the words chosen."?

A. A high tone of voice reflects an emotional communication.

B. Feelings are expressed with different words than ideas are.

C. The tone of voice can carry information beyond the meaning of words.

D. Feelings are more difficult to express than ideas.

Câu 643:

Which of the following does the author probably support about public performance?

A. Public performance success depends on techniques, skills, and audience connection.

B. Public performance success depends solely on the text or music being performed.

C. Natural talent alone , regardless of preparation or skill ensures effective communication.

D. The motivation behind the performance has little impact on its success.
